MadeMart.co

Buy better. Support small-batch Australia.

The joy of good business.

Madebox curates premium gift boxes filled with small-batch products from over 400 Australian makers — many based in regional communities. Each box can be tailored to reflect your local area, making it feel personal and connected.

These are gifts that do more than say thank you — they showcase your values, support local jobs, and help clients feel at home in their new community.

Because where something comes from matters.

Every Madebox gift connects your clients to the real people behind the products — small-batch makers with big stories. From family-run farms to women-led social enterprises, these producers shape the character of their regions.

We don't just share their products. We share their journeys — and help them reach new customers with every gift you give.

Welcome to MadeMart.

Support Small-Batch Australia

MadeMart is more than an online farmer's market — it's a home for Australia's small-batch makers. Every product tells a story, every purchase fuels local dreams, and every connection strengthens our community. It's where conscious consumers discover authentic creators and celebrate the unique spirit of Australian craftsmanship.

With MadeMart's unique profit-sharing model, more of every dollar you spend goes straight to supporting small-batch producers across Australia.

MADEBOX.

A woman with curly hair, wearing a black t-shirt and jeans, is standing in a warehouse or workshop. She is holding a small, wrapped item in her left hand and a card or label in her right hand, looking down at them with a focused expression. The background features tall metal shelving units filled with various items, including boxes and bottles. In the foreground, there are several bottles of different shapes and sizes, some with labels, and a few other small items on a table. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, creative workspace.
